El Centro

- Shades of U&I - An organization created as a way to have a safe, welcoming environment for those in our community who identify as bi-racial and/or multi-racial. Our goal is to celebrate the multiple identities some carry and embrace the beauty in them as well as a primary focus to educate and spread awareness in both academic and social settings about the growing phenomena of multi and bi-racial individuals. Diversity comes in many different shapes, sizes, and colors and the power diversity holds is exactly what we want to celebrate. Meetings Wednesdays at 6pm in the LSC (room TBD)

- Las Comadres - Encourage and support sisterhood among CSU Latinas while supporting them in pursuing career goals and preparing them for a diverse society. Meetings Wednesday 5-7pm in El Centro

- La Conexión - Fosters a strong sense of community, cultural pride, student engagement, and academic confidence for Latino students at CSU. This program support first year, low income, and first generation students through their transition to college by connecting them with people who are invested in their success. Meeting times vary depending on family group connected to.

- Triunfo - Aims to close the achievement gap through weekly one-on-one tutoring in all academic areas. Open to all students without restrictions, providing free tutoring on CSU campus for k-5th graders. Also great way to receive some volunteer hours! Meetings every Thursday 3:45pm to 5:30pm in the Natural Sciences

Black/African American Cultural Center

- United Men of Color - To make a positive change on campus and in the community through service, leadership development, building community amongst students and faculty, but most importantly, culturally inclusive programming. Meetings Sundays at 6pm in various LSC rooms

- United Women of Color - A group of woman who are ethnically diverse, value individuality with power in numbers, represent and promote issues that concern us. Meetings Tuesdays at 5:15pm in various LSC rooms
Asian/Pacific American Cultural Center

- Peer Mentoring - APACC’s Peer Mentoring Program supports peer mentors in developing leadership, critical thinking, community building, and mentorship skills. The program also provides new students with personalized mentorship that connects them to campus resources and community, and allows them to develop the skills to become engaged community leaders. To sign up for a peer mentor, email apacc.csu@gmail.com or visit http://apacc.colostate.edu/peer-mentoring-program

- The Experience of All is a bi-monthly interactive event where students deepen their understanding of Asian culture through discussions and hands-on activities.

- TEA Time meets in the APACC office in the LSC room 333. Past TEA times have included social justice conversations, celebrating the lunar new year, study break tips, and a discussion on how love is viewed differently around the world.

- P.A.L.S/Explore - This is a K-3rd (PALS) and 4-6th (Explore) mentoring program with CSU students. Students are paired up with Little PALS or Explorers and meet every Sunday for fun cultural learning experiences. Meetings Sundays

GLBTQQA Resource Center

- Coming Out Group - The group meets for about 10 weeks and offers participants opportunities to develop deeper self-awareness about themselves and LGBTQ communities. Topics include coming out, talking with families, healthy relationships, wellness, religion and spirituality, and more.

- COLORS – The purpose is to provide an open, diverse, and inclusive space for students of color who identify within the GLBTQ+ community with an aim to educate and bring awareness of intersectionality and multiculturalism.

Native American Cultural Center

- Eagle Feather Tutoring - A free service available to students on a walk-in or appointment basis at the NACC office.

- Native Americans Women’s Circle - Enhances social, group, individual, and cultural support for the women of the Native American Cultural Center. The education and cultural support programs are designed to reflect the importance of Native culture while encompassing the role of being a woman.

Women’s Gender And Advocacy Center

- Red Whistle Brigade - A troupe of students who are responsible for providing educational programming in the areas of gender socialization, sexual violence prevention, healthy relationships, sexual health and more! Anyone who would like to be involved may contact the WGAC office to find out requirements specifically. Use peer education to interrupt oppression on campus.

- Men in the Movement - Provides opportunities for CSU men who want to learn more about masculinity, its relationship to violence, and how all men can work to prevent gender violence. The group meets every week to explore these issues and find ways to relate the work to their lived experiences. Topics discussed are related to gender socialization, masculinities, healthy relationships, and social justice.

Resources for Disabled Students

- Committee for Disabled Student Accessibility - Is a part of enhancing/improving accessibility on campus, removing campus wide barriers for students with disabilities, promoting awareness and education of disability related issues. Times vary depending on projects.
